ELEVARK: O	ord, uttry	/kk og	prosentr	egnin	g.

TAKE A WALK 5:

Translate idioms and share your sources.

Digital research on idioms:	NORWEGIAN TRANSL ATION
Digital research on idioms: Find English idioms about houses and buildings	NORWEGIAN TRANSLATION and translate them into Norwegian: Remember to share your sources as well.
Nemember to share your sources as well.
Complete the online tasks about possessive	Translate the sentences into Norwegian if you pronouns	are unsure what they mean. If not, do the next task.
Watch the online prezi

MATHS: PERCENTAGE

Task	(1:
------	------------

Listen to this explanation of what percentage is.

Task 2:

Now, learn how to find out the price of an item if it's on sale: Schooltube.

Task 3:

Do it yourself:

- 1. Find an item on the internet that you would like to buy.
- 2. Pretend you get a 30% discount on the item.
- 3. How much would you have to pay for your item?

Tack 4: Out of	the world's population, how many percent are homeless?
145K 4. Out 0	the world's population, now many percent are nomeless:
	ssary numbers you need here:
- Home	less statistics and Worldometer
Calculation:
1. Find t	he number of the world's population
2. Find t	he number of homeless in the world
2. 11100	Te flamber of florificess in the world
3. Now how do we find the percentage of homeless from these two figures?
4. Watch this explanation
5. Can y	ou put the correct numbers into your math problem and find the answer?			