

Once upon a time there were 3 little pigs,
so I ate them. End of story. Now go to sleep!

Bildekilder i denne presentasjonen:

Wolf reading bedtime story: Wikimedia commons

Resterende bilder: Kjøpt av Fremmedspråksenteret fra Dreamstime

Making up a story

Oral task

- Look at the picture.
  - describe the setting
  - pick one of the persons
  - what is the name of this person?
  - why is he/she there?
  - what is he/she thinking about?
  - where is he/she going?
- Discuss in small groups.
- Share in class.

Write a story EL

- Choose one of the pictures
  - describe the setting.
- Choose one of the persons
  - describe the person, appearance and personality
- Something happens
  - what?
  - where?
  - who is involved?
- Include these elements:
screwdriver, cell phone, bottle, misunderstanding and a selfie.
- Give your story an appropriate title.
- Write your story.

Write a story SSA

- Choose one of the pictures
  - describe the setting.
- Choose one of the persons
  - describe the person, appearance and personality
- Something happens
  - what?
  - where?
  - who is involved?
- Include these elements:
cell phone, bottle, misunderstanding and a selfie.
- Give your story an appropriate title.
- Write your story.

Write a story TIP

- Choose one of the pictures
  - describe the setting.
- Choose one of the persons
  - describe the person, appearance and personality
- Something happens
  - what?
  - where?
  - who is involved?
- Include these elements:
screwdriver, safety boots, bottle, misunderstanding and a selfie.
- Give your story an appropriate title.
- Write your story.

Write a story BA

- Choose one of the pictures
  - describe the setting.
- Choose one of the persons
  - describe the person, appearance and personality
- Something happens
  - what?
  - where?
  - who is involved?
- Include these elements:
shovel, safety boots, bottle, misunderstanding and a selfie.
- Give your story an appropriate title.
- Write your story.

Write a story HO

- Choose one of the pictures
  - describe the setting.
- Choose one of the persons
  - describe the person, appearance and personality
- Something happens
  - what?
  - where?
  - who is involved?
- Include these elements:
cell phone, painkiller, bottle, misunderstanding and a selfie.
- Give your story an appropriate title.
- Write your story.

