Course code:	LNCE10317-1 18H
Course name:	Worldviews in Nordic Society – past and present
Form of examination:	Individual essay
Date:	18th December, 2018
Lecturer(s):	Andrew Thomas
Comments: Handing in takes place on Canvas

Exam question:

"Challenges and resources for peaceful living together across religious divisions in Norway"

You should talk to Andrew about using a more specific formulation.

You might want to include in your analysis:

- Individual religions' conditions in Norway
- Ways of teaching religion
- The history of tolerance and political religion in Norway
- And much more...

approximately 2000 words written in English, French or a Scandinavian language.

Marks A-F. A indicating excellent and F indicating fail.

A good assignment will:

- answer the question (i.e. address both challenges and resources, aim the whole essay towards issues concerning peaceful living together across religious divisions)
- justify everything it claims
- discuss relevant academic literature and religious texts where relevant
- consider alternative understandings to those presented by individual writers and religions
- be structured and clear
- use a consistent system for referencing and bibliography
