

i Information

EXAMINATION

Course code: SFE10314

Course: English: Culture Studies II

Date and duration: 1 December 2017, 4 hours

Permitted aids: English-English Dictionary

Lecturer: Johanna Wagner

The examination:

The examination consists of two sections. Answer all three questions in Section I and one question in Section II.

Date of announcement of the examination results: 22
December 2017

The examination results are available in Studentweb

1 Section I (30 %), Short answer

Short Answer

Answer the questions fully below. These are not essay questions; therefore, a few sentences to a short paragraph should be sufficient for each question.

1. Describe at least three differences between the Puritans beliefs and those of the Enlightenment.

Fill in your answer here

2. Name the three branches of government and their main roles.

Fill in your answer here

3. What was Reconstruction? Why was it necessary? Who did it effect? Roughly how long did it last?

Fill in your answer here

2 Section II (70 %) Literature Essay

Write an essay on ONE of the topics below. The essay does not need to be a certain length, but must develop your points sufficiently to make your argument. REMEMBER: The material you use should come from the course. Define your terms; a strong thesis should guide your work; the parts of an essay are important; and examples always help

1. Realism, Naturalism, and Modernism are three separate genres of writing in literature. In this essay, you will compare two of them. What are each genre's goals? In other words, what are authors of this genre trying to do in literature? What are the differences between the two? Use any of the texts in these genres to give examples.

2. Arthur Miller's "The Crucible" is a 1953 play that condemns both current events and historic injustice in the United States. Discuss the events that inspired this play and explain how Miller brings these two events together. What are the ethical and moral dilemmas highlighted by the play? Why is John Proctor's story so unjust?