

i Information

EXAMINATION

Course code:

SFE21317

Course:

British literature adapted into films

Date and duration:

12 December 2019, 5 hours

Permitted aids:

English-English dictionary

Lecturer:

Britt Wenche Svenhard

The examination:

The examination consists of two questions. Answer one of the two questions.

Date of announcement of the examination results: 2 January 2020

The examination results are available in Studentweb.

1 Questions and your answer

Answer ONE of the questions below

1.

Discuss how it is possible to see Robin's Alice Through the Looking Glass (2016) as an adaptation of Burton's Alice in Wonderland (2010) rather than Carroll's literary original.

2.

Select some aspects of Laurence Sterne's The Life and Opinions of Tristram Shandy, Gentleman (1759) and discuss to what extent these have been successfully adapted in the film A Cock and Bull Story (Winterbottom 2005).

Fill in your answer here

Format - | B I U x₂ x² | I_x | | | | | |

Words: 0

Maximum marks: 0